SUPPORT THE GALLERY!

When you support the Mitchell Gallery, you help provide a world-class center for the visual arts in the heart of historic Annapolis. You enable the Gallery to bring museum-quality exhibitions to an award-winning, state-of-the-art facility on the campus of St. John's College. Your support helps bring works by Rembrandt, Calder, Rodin, Borofsky, Hiroshige, Cassatt, and many other artists to Annapolis. You make our community culturally vibrant. You enable hundreds of schoolchildren to enrich their art education with tours and hands-on activities. You support educational outreach programs such as lectures, gallery talks, seminars, poetry workshops and other programming for each exhibition all open to the public with free admission. Last year the Gallery welcomed more than 10,000 visitors, enriching lives in the region through diverse and innovative programming.
